He took the loaves, gave thanks, and gave them out: Today's readings remind us that God provides for us physically as well as spiritually. In the 1st reading, Elisha assures his servant that one hundred people will be fed with just twenty barley loaves because the Lord has promised it. All three readings are brought together in the gospel account of the Feeding of the Five Thousand (the only miracle of Jesus that is recounted in all four gospels). Not only does Jesus outdo Elisha's miracle, he demonstrates that, by feeding the people from his own divine hands, God is unifying the people through meeting their need. We pray, this week, that we might know ourselves to be in the hands of the Lord, and that our lives may bear abundant fruit as a result.

Pope Francis has established a 'World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly', which will take place for the first time this Sunday 25 July 2021 on the theme 'I am with you always'.

PRAYER FOR THE FIRST WORLD DAY FOR GRANDPARENTS AND THE ELDERLY

I thank You, Lord, for the comfort of Your presence:
even in times of loneliness, You are my hope and my confidence,
You have been my rock and my fortress since my youth!

I thank You for having given me a family and for having blessed me with a long life. I thank You for moments of joy and difficulty, for the dreams that have already come true in my life and for those that are still ahead of me. I thank You for this time of renewed fruitfulness to which You call me.

Increase, O Lord, my faith, make me a channel of your peace, teach me to embrace those who suffer more than me, to never stop dreaming and to tell of your wonders to new generations.

Protect and guide Pope Francis and the Church, that the light of the Gospel might reach the ends of the earth. Send Your Spirit, O Lord, to renew the world, that the storm of the pandemic might be calmed, the poor consoled and wars ended.

Sustain me in weakness and help me to live life to the full in each moment that You give me, in the certainty that you are with me every day, even until the end of the age. Amen.

WORLD DROWNING PREVENTION DAY July 25th

"As Patron of Water Safety Ireland, I am delighted to lend my voice to the most important and historic annual initiative that is World Drowning Prevention Day, to be marked annually on 25th July..... Every year in Ireland, an average of 115 people die in our seas, and at our coastline and inland waterways. Behind this stark figure lie so many futures lost, lives shattered, and families ruptured.On this World Drowning Prevention Day I urge all of you to respect the water, to never underestimate its strength and to avoid taking the unnecessary risks that can so easily lead to tragedy, loss and heartbreak. Our seas and waterways are life enhancing resources. Please enjoy them safely and responsibly". Michael D. Higgins, Uachtarán na hÉireann President of Ireland
