ADVENT REFLECTION Today's readings call for a 'baptism of repentance' in the words of John, the Baptist, 'And the forests and every fragrant tree will provide shade at the command of God'. There is mention of 'peace through integrity' and 'our bondage as streams in dry land'. 'A voice cries in the wilderness'. Can we open the door to Christ this Advent? May we walk humbly on earth. May we take care of the poor. Help us to know and to trust in you. You hold the key to the door. Open our minds to knowing you. Open our hearts to your care. Knowing your presence in everything. Finding you everywhere. Open our eyes to seeing you. Beauty and splendour on earth. Active and present in all our lives. Bringing Christ's mission to birth. May we answer the call of John, the Baptist, the call of the earth, and the coming of Christ, to open the door of our heart this Advent.

An Advent Character & an invitation for us to walk in faith: St Joseph. The year of St Joseph draws to a close on December 8th. If you haven't had a chance to ponder his story perhaps now is a good time!

As an Advent character, his was a supporting role in the truest sense of the word, and yet his choices mattered so much! Joseph's story can remind each of us that our willingness to take the journey of faith affects everything. It tells us that walking in faith will require something of us, perhaps more than we thought we were capable of. But it also tells us that if we say yes to God and trust in God's path for us, like Joseph, we, too, can find our place in the greatest story ever told. We, too, can experience God-with-us. Walking in faith, we, like Joseph, can recognize the coming of the Divine into our hearts and call his name Jesus. Hail, Guardian of the Redeemer, Spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary. To you God entrusted his only Son; in you Mary placed her trust; with you Christ became man. Blessed Joseph, to us too, show yourself a father and guide us in the path of life. Obtain for us grace, mercy and courage, and defend us from every evil. Amen.
