CONTINUING OUR RECOVERY

Guard me as the apple of your eye. Hide me in the shadow of your wing.

As we move towards the end of the church's year, today's readings invite us to think about endings: not in a fearful way, but with an invitation to hope and trust in the God of resurrection and life. Jesus in the Gospel reading (Lk 20:27-38), answering the sly question posed by the Sadducees, demonstrates that they have not even begun to understand the transformation of life that will take place after the resurrection. Heaven is about union with the God who is Lord of life and the living. St. Paul, in the second reading, prays that our Lord and God may strengthen the young Christian community of Thessalonica with the grace of strength, comfort and hope. He also warns them to be alert to 'the interference of bigoted and evil people', who would prevent the Lord's message of love spreading quickly throughout the world. This week, we pray that Christ's message of love and compassion for the whole of life may spread quickly throughout the world

Revenue's Refund on your donations to the Parish.
